NORMAN E. MACK WOULD TURN TABLES

Instead of Appearing Before a Sulzer Investigator Files Libel Suit for Large Sum.

[By Associated Press.] Albany, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Norman E. Mack, former Democratic national chairman, failed to appear today before John Hennessey, Governor Sulzer's special investigator, to answer charges for failure to account for money contributed in the last gubernatorial campaign, but instead filed a $5000 libel action against Hennessey.

Gives Grounds for Suit.

[By Associated Press.] Albany, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Mr. Mack charges that Hennessey published a statement claiming that he (Mack) unlawfully appropriated money contributed for the campaign of former Governor Dix, and that he blackmailed individuals into contributing.

DISTRICT COURT MATTERS

Criminal Docket Taken Up and Court Will Be Busy for Some Days.

The criminal docket was taken up in the District Court this morning and the usual number of jurors, witnesses and interested spectators were on hand. No cases were ready for trial today, however, and court recessed until Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Petit Jurors.

Following is a list of the petit jurors for the third and fourth weeks of the District Court, as drawn by the jury commissioners:

Third Week—B. F. Manning, Henry Kountz, W. T. Crenshaw, A. M. Waldrop, O. L. Andrews, J. A. Henry, M.

G. Buchanan, H. P. Dansby, D. D. Burkhalter, J. M. Aikins, J. M. Olsen, J. L. Holligan, J. M. Gordon, F. E. Bullock, C. S. Martin, A. J. Wagner, W. C. Boyett Sr., J. S. Barker, J. T. Dyess, J. H. Sutton, W. E. Moore, F. Eden, T. K. Lawrence, J. H. Dowling, W. H. Cargill, G. M. Wilkerson, L. C. Moorehead, C. M. Bell, J. T. Kelley, G. W. Williams, S. C. Hoyle, W. J. Higgs, W. B. English, S. T. Pate, M. F. Dansby.

NOTICE TO PARENTS.

The moment the child enters school there is an additional taxation placed upon its eyes. Defects in sight, which have prior to this time escaped notice, often develop. If your child needs glasses, it is high time you were attending to the matter. To wait until they have begun their studies means suffering on their part. This is a matter of great importance. Bring them to me any day, and rest assured they will be kindly, carefully and scientifically treated. J. W. PAYNE, Optometrist with J. M. Caldwell.

BE NEIGHBORLY.

Tell your friends about Ross' "Dead Quick" spray. Tell them that it kills bedbugs, ants, fleas, roaches, mites, lice and their eggs; that it kills and keeps away mosquitoes—that it is nice and clean for household use. Tell them it is sold in Bryan by E. J. Jenkins, the druggist.

..THE AIRDOME..

Closed Tonight on Account of BAD WEATHER.

Amusements

AT THE DIXIE.

The patrons of this theatre during the past week have had the pleasure of witnessing a number of great multiple (feature) productions of exceptional quality. This week brings seven more multiple wonders, ranging from clashing action to delightful romance and howling farce comedy. In addition to these big features there will be a captivating number of grand single reel dramas and comedies. We would like to list them all, but there isn't room. But look at this list of multiples—a new one every day, some days two.

The program for tonight is an extra good one from start to finish. Velma Whitman and Henry King appear in "The Medal of Honor," a beautiful love story interwoven into an exciting incident of the hazardous life of a fireman. Then there is the only G. M. Anderson in one of his famous Western dramas, "Broncho Billy Reforms," assisted by his pretty new leading lady, Miss Marguerite Clayton, and a strong Western company. In addition to these there is a special Vitagraph two-reel feature, "The Lost Millionaire." It is a beautiful story of love and high finance, with plenty of sensational and exciting moments. Anna Stewart and E. K. Lincoln have the leading roles and are assisted by a strong Vitagraph cast.

Tuesday afternoon Harry Myers and Ethel Clayton will be seen in a stirring feature, "A Hero Among Men," a remarkable drama with courage and stamina its features. Tuesday night the program will contain "The Island of Perversty," a very funny Edison comedy; "Retribution," a great moral lesson, by the Kalem company; "Fashion's Toy," a beautiful Lubin drama with Ormi Hawley and Edwin Carewe in the leading roles.

Wednesday afternoon the great sensational two-reel feature, "The Status of Fright," replete with stirring situations and sensational climaxes. Wednesday night is regular Biograph and Pathe Weekly night, together with other fine reels.

Thursday will be a great feature day at the Dixie, as there will be a two-reeler in the afternoon and another at night. The afternoon will be the sensational Selig feature comedy-drama, "A Wild Ride," featuring Resie Eytan in her great ride on the back of an ostrich. This scene is a positive scream. "A Wild Ride" is too good to be missed. The feature at night is a highly sensational and spectacular two-reel Cines, "High Treason." It is an exciting story of war and the stock markets.

Friday afternoon brings "The Diamond Mystery," a sensational Vitagraph detective two-reel drama featuring Earle Williams and Leah Beards, with a great list of other stars. Saturday night there will be an unusually strong bill, including a powerful Lubin two-reel feature, "The Clod," featuring Romaine Felding and Mary Ryan. In addition to this there will be several other fine reels, of which "The Redemption of Railroad Lack" deserves special mention. This is an exciting drama of the rails which brings forth many thrilling incidents.

From the beginning of the week to the end the pictures will be a revelation to photoplay-goers, and the Dixie should enjoy crowded houses every afternoon and night.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

"Does my child need glasses?" There may be nothing wrong with your child's eyes, and again there may be. I can tell you. If glasses are needed, they should be provided. If not needed, I will tell you so. J. W. PAYNE, With J. M. Caldwell.
